

South Pinery Road to Bingham Lake Trail Extension

(Above): View Northward at South starting point of the new concrete trail project, at end of the existing concrete.

(Above): View Northward through the center of the new concrete trail project.

(Above): View Northward at North stopping point of the new concrete trail project, at the end of the existing concrete.

Concrete will be placed to connect the trail running from S. Pinery Parkway to Bingham Lake. The south end of the trail is between Prairie Lake Trail and North Thunderhill Road. The concrete connection will replace the unpaved portion of about 1,500 feet of gravel path. Work should be completed by this Fall.